The roots of the Holland Marsh

MIRIAM KING
Bradford Times

On Sept. 15, Bradford West Gwillimbury Mayor Rob Keffer officially recognized the 90th anniversary of the start of the Holland Marsh Drainage Scheme, by raising the flag of the Holland Marsh Growers' Association at the Bradford Courthouse.

It was on Sept. 15, 1925 that a steam-powered dredge was mounted on a barge, to begin excavation of the 28 km of canals that ring the 7,000 acre marsh. Local residents William Fraser and David Watson were the first to envision draining the swamp to create new prime agricultural land, and called in Professor William Henry Day from the Ontario Agricultural College in Guelph to work on the drainage scheme.

Mayor Keffer, joined by BWG Councillors Gary Lamb, Ron Orr, Peter Ferragine and Gary Baynes, and King Twp. Councillors Avia Eek and Debbie Schaefer, noted that in 1925, residents of Bradford, West Gwillimbury and King watched as the dredge took its first bite out of the muck soils.

Big night at the community centre

MIRIAM KING
Bradford Times

Over the decades, the Lions Club of Bradford & District has funded improvements to local ball diamonds, helped pay for the new Aquatics Centre at the BWG Leisure Centre, supported minor sports, the food bank, student bursaries and scholarships, contributed to Southlake Regional Health Centre's programs and fundraising drives supported the Santa Claus Parade, Guides and Scouts, Dog Guides of Canada, Big Brothers Big Sisters of York, and more – largely thanks to its major fund-raiser, the annual Mammoth Draw for Cash and Cars.

Once again, all 1,700 tickets sold out before the Sept. 12 draw date, and the Bradford & District Memorial Community Centre was packed with ticket-holders hoping to win shares of the $99,650 in prizes – including the second prize of a 2015 Chev Camaro, and top prize of a Chev Colorado pick-up truck.

Every $100 ticket entitled two to a beef buffet dinner, served up by Lions and volunteers from the community, as well as an evening of social gaming and entertainment by the Legends of Rock & Roll tribute artists.

The elimination-style draw saw every ticket – including the early bird winners of $1000 each – placed back in the drum, to be drawn out one at a time, with $500 awarded to the first pulled, and every 100th ticket after that, until there were only 10 tickets left in the drum.

The next five tickets drawn each won $1,000 – and tickets 1696 through 1698 won $2000 each.

The second-last pulled from the drum won the Camaro, valued at $36,341 – and the final ticket remaining won the Colorado, valued at $40,809 – won by a delighted Shane Weir of Innisfil, who was present at the Draw and nearly overcome with excitement.

Congratulations to the winners:

Illuminated pathways, more durable playscapes

BRADFORD TIMES STAFF
Bradford West Gwillimbury council has agreed with a recommendation of staff, that the Davey Lookout Playscape "not be considered" for lighting.

Councillor Mark Contois initially questioned the recommendation, on Sept. 15.

"I'm a little concerned," Contois said, noting that the area – a hilltop park, surrounded by homes on Breeze, Noble Drive and Archer Avenue – has been targeted by an arsonist in the past, and suggesting that "even a solar light of some sort" might discourage illegal activity.

Michael O'Hare, manager of parks and property, explained that municipalities are now "tending to stay away from lights in their parks" – except for lighting along pathways. There are concerns that lighting play areas could encourage after-hours loitering, and create "light pollution," impacting neighbouring yards.

"We haven't lit any of our playscapes, but we have lit our pathways... We feel that lighting pathways is appropriate, because certainly we get people enjoying the paths," O'Hare said, suggesting that "spillage" from lighting along the paths could also illuminate play areas, to some extent.

It's a policy that the town has embraced in its new parks, and is now considering introducing into its older parks, including Davey Lookout. "Certainly we are going to be exploring the possibility of lighting the pathway."

O'Hare noted that "backlotting" – surrounding a park with houses and back yards – is no longer acceptable; all of the town's newer parks have large windows onto the streets, making activities more visible to passers-by, and the police.

The town is also moving to install play equipment made of non-flammable composites to discourage the wanton vandalism of playground property, as has occurred at St. Jean de Brebeuf School, and at least twice at Davey Lookout.

Point of View

Federal politics

Memorable faces. One of the ... "perks"? "pitfalls"? ... of being a reporter for any length of time is that one meets a lot of politicians, at all levels of government.

With the federal election looming on Oct. 19 - and this week, Sept. 14-21, designated Canadian Democracy Week - it's an appropriate time to think back on some of those federal politicians.

My earliest memory of a political figure was of Prime Minister John Diefenbaker, announcing the cancellation of the Avro Arrow project, on Feb. 20, 1959 - explaining that in the new era of Sputniks and satellites, fighter jets would soon be obsolete. I remember thinking, with the clear vision of childhood, that he was a fool.

As a reporter, I met Jean Chretien. My impression was that I was seeing and hearing a great actor, playing the role of both an ordinary guy and the leader of Canada.

I met Peter MacKay, when he was in the running for the Conservative leadership. He was introduced as "the next John A. Macdonald" - but when asked to share his vision for Canada, his answer was basically, "Me as leader."

I rephrased the question several times, then gave up.

Stockwell Day, former Conservative Minister of International Trade, had the coldest eyes of any living human being.

The late Jim Flaherty, whom I met while he was still Provincial Minister of Finance, was impatient but brilliant.

Perhaps the most impressive federal politician I met was Joe Clark, the 16th Prime Minister of Canada, several years ago at an event at the Nottawasaga Inn Resort.

The television cameras never loved Clark; the media were seldom kind. But in a brief interview, Clark came across as intelligent and thoughtful; his answers were considered and comprehensive. He was a statesman - a rare thing, in a time when showmanship and stagecraft have become such an important part of politics.

Clark is now a professor and a consultant; and I can't help but wax nostalgic.

A 50th wedding anniversary

NANCY DONALA/SUBMITTED

John and Linda McNicol celebrated their 50th anniversary on Sept. 5, by renewing their vows in front of a minister. The bride arrived in a 1981 Pontiac Firebird Convertible accompanied by her sons; the groom was escorted by daughter Tammy. Among the invited guests was Bradford West Gwillimbury Mayor Rob Keffer, who delivered congratulations from the town.

NEWMARKET VOICE FESTIVAL

To the editor: I am hoping you will give some thought to writing a short article about the 20th anniversary of the Newmarket Voice Festival. Even though the name suggests it's a purely Newmarket event, from the very beginning it has included numerous people from Bradford - as participants, volunteers, scholarship donors, committee members and accountants. We hope to attract even more interest from a growing Bradford.

Information about the week-long event is on the website, www.Newmarketvoicefestival.com and the deadline is Friday, Sept. 25. Please let the people of Bradford know more about this wonderful event.

Approximately 100 people turned out for the official opening of incumbent York-Simcoe MP, Conservative Peter Van Loan's campaign office in Bradford.

Van Loan opens campaign office in Bradford

BRADFORD TIMES STAFF

Conservative MP for York-Simcoe and Government House Leader Peter Van Loan officially opened his campaign office in Bradford, Sept. 9, at 157 Holland St. East, Unit 1.

Approximately 100 supporters and volunteers turned out for a barbecue, ribbon-cutting and speeches.

Van Loan, who has been campaigning door to door daily, sported a deep tan, and summed up the key issues as, "It's about leadership, the economy and security... It's not about somebody doing something offside while he's doing a plumbing job" - a reference to disgraced former Conservative candidate Jerry Bance.

"This is an election that is very, very important, because we're in a challenging time," Van Loan said, downplaying the news that Canada was in a "technical recession" during the first half of the year, calling it "a tiny little blip." He noted that Canada has continued to create jobs, and except for the collapse of the oil industry, "80% of Canada's economy has stayed on track."

Van Loan spoke of the importance of sticking with the Conservative low-tax plan to "make this a worthwhile place to invest and create jobs," and accused the Liberals of threatening to take away tax credits, while increasing Employment Insurance payroll deductions, impacting "hard working people trying to move ahead."

He told his volunteers, "At the end of the day we need everyone's help... to make the case for Stephen Harper and for me. There's a lot at stake for Canada and the future." And, he said, "I'm having a great time at the doors."

The roots of the Holland Marsh

"Just imagine the sound of the steamwhistle blowing," Keffer said. "Today we recognize the start of the big scheme that transformed a swamp... (and) the foresight of the people who thought and dreamed what the Holland Marsh could be."

"It's a great day," said King Councillor Avla Eek, a marsh farmer married to a descendant of one of the pioneers of the Holland Marsh. She acknowledged that when the drainage scheme was first proposed, "King Twp. was against it. They appealed to the drainage referee."

Now, Eek said, King is in full support, and the Marsh is a "specialty crop area world-renowned for the vegetables produced."

Art Janse, former drainage superintendent, and 'father' of the Holland Marsh drainage improvement scheme relocating some of the original canals, called the marsh

"basically one of the unique crown jewels of Ontario." But it Jody Mott, executive director of the Holland Marsh Growers Association, who presented the HMGCA flag and summed up: "We are Canada's salad bowl. We are the soup bowl of Ontario. We are a very large economic driver for the area," she said, without the vision of Fraser, Watson and Day 90 years ago, the 7,000 acre Holland Marsh farmed by 126 farmers "wouldn't be where it is today."

Smiles for CHATS

Seniors need smiles, too. For the past several years, Tim Hortons stores in Bradford have donated the proceeds of their Smile Cookie Campaign to youth programs, like Big Brothers Big Sisters of York. But this year, and for the next five years, franchise owners Jack and Ruth Thornton, and Perry Thornton, have decided to support CHATS, Community &

Home Assistance to Seniors. The goal is to raise enough to purchase a new wheelchair-accessible van, to improve the transportation services available to Bradford West Gwillimbury clients.

On Sept. 8, the Thorntons introduced this year's Smile Cookie campaign, with help from staff, CHATS Director of Development Tim Jones, Executive Director Christina Bisanz, and clients Estelle Sirman and Olav Andersen. Smile Cookies will be available at all Tim Hortons stores for $1 all this week, continuing through Sunday - with 100% of the proceeds going to CHATS.

"I appreciate everything you do," Jones told the Thorntons. "People say it's where the rubber hits the road... Here, it's where the cookie hits the mouth!"

Mayor of Newton Robinson

MIRIAM KING
Bradford Times

The hamlet of Newton Robinson was once a thriving industrial centre – where inns for stagecoach travellers did brisk business, and several mills and manufactories were in operation, before 1900.

It's now a quiet, largely residential village, with a single store on County Rd. 27. Newton Robinson United Church recently closed its doors for good. The Tec-We-Gwill Women's Institute hall is no longer run by a community group, but is in the hands of the municipality.

Long-time resident Peter Ellis was concerned that the Newton Robinson community was losing the organizations and the connections that have held it together since it was "Lairner's Corners" in the 1820s.

That's why he and wife Patty issued an invitation to the community: to come out for a potluck picnic on Labour Day, Sept. 7, and elect an unofficial "Mayor of Newton Robinson."

It's a fun position only – no power, no money, no budget – that involves heading up a new community events committee, to organize events that could include an Old Time country dance, or a Newton Robinson baseball game. Tyler Philip was elected mayor by acclamation – and immediately broadened the scope of his honorary position, and that of his elected council, suggesting they could reach out to assist the community, in the spirit of the barn-building bees once common in rural Ontario. "There are people in Newton Robinson who need assistance, who won't ask for assistance," Philip said – from yard maintenance to clearing the snow from driveways, or painting a house. "As a community (we can) step up and do something useful."

Philip added, "We want to get together and do a dance? That's great... It's about working together as a group, whether it's for fun or something more useful."

Mark Bunchell was "elected" deputy mayor, Andrea Nolan as treasurer, Becky Rutherford – secretary, Ann Berman – activity co-ordinator, and Les Litkei, as town crier.

A harvest of history, in Newton Robinson

HELEN YIELDING
Tecumseth & West Gwillimbury Historical Society

As summer slips away and the nights grow longer, thoughts turn to Fall, and the activities that a new season brings. The Tecumseth & West Gwillimbury Historical Society has planned a series of interesting and informative meetings this Autumn.

On Monday, Sept. 21, the society welcomes author, teacher and historian Glen Turner, who has walked a 200-year-old trail from the mouth of the Humber River to the Holland Marsh. Known as The Carrying-Place Trail, the trail has felt the footsteps of First Nations, Coureurs de Bois and colonial officials, and played an important role in our history. Turner, author of the book, "The Toronto Carrying-Place," will share his knowledge and enthusiasm.

"Framing and Hanging Your Ancestors" is the topic of the Monday, Oct. 21 meeting – a how-to session on displaying your old photographs. Bradford resident and artist, designer, illustrator and professional framer, Ingrid Schienke will provide tips on giving relatives from the past, new life.

The Nov. 16 meeting will honour Remembrance Day, and December will offer an old-fashioned Christmas party and dinner for members.

Meetings are held in the Tec-We-Gwill Women's Institute Hall in Newton Robinson, Bradford West Gwillimbury, at 7:30 p.m., followed by a social hour and refreshments. All are welcome. For more information, contact June at 905-775-7144.

SUBMITTED

Just nine days ago, members of the BWW Events Group and presenting sponsors Summerlyn Dental were promoting this year's Chilifest, scheduled for Sept. 19 – but a decision was made on Wednesday to cancel the event due to a lack of chili vendors.

Bradford Chilifest cancelled

The BWW Events Group has announced the cancellation of Bradford Chilifest for 2015.

A press release from the Events Group, which hosted a successful Bradford Ribfest in July, stated, "It is with regret that BWW Events Group announces the cancellation of the second annual Bradford Chilifest, scheduled for Saturday Sept. 19. This decision was reached with great difficulty by the group during its weekly meeting held on Wednesday, Sept. 9." Explained a spokesperson, "Five chili teams have dropped out of the event within the course of the last week. If we do not have enough chili to serve, then there is no Chilifest." A minimum number of chili vendors is required to offset expenses.

The spokesperson went on to say that the issue for potential vendors was one of insufficient manpower: making a sufficient amount of chili, storing and serving it according to strict Health Canada guidelines, requires a reliable team that can make the commitment of time and effort.

The BWW Events Group said that it is committed to its ongoing mission, to organize special events within the community, and to its chosen beneficiaries, Southlake Regional Health Centre and President's Choice Children's Charity, and is looking at ways to streamline the process and involvement before Chilifest 2016.

"Everyone in Bradford and surrounding areas has come to expect high-quality family-friendly events from us. We recognize the fact that many people have already made arrangements to be there to support, and we sincerely regret any disappointment this may cause you and your families," the BWW Events Group concluded.

My Sister's Place shelter for women and children is located in Alliston, in the Town of New Tecumseth, but serves all of South Simcoe - providing emergency beds, transitional housing and re-integration programs, for women in crisis, or moving back into their community.

On Sept. 12 and 13, My Sister's Place reached out to all of the communities within its catchment area, with Family Festival Simcoe County, held at various locations across South Simcoe. Events included a Family Pet Show in Adiala-Tosoronto, Play Day at Kidergy Indoor Playground in Bradford, a Super Hero Family 2K Dash in Angus on Sunday; a Movie Night in Alliston, and an Apple Orchard Extravaganza at Avalon Orchards in Innisfil, on Saturday.

Visitors to the organic orchard on the 5th Line of Innisfil were invited to take a tractor-drawn wagon ride, and to pick their own apples, for a set fee that included a donation to My Sister's Place.

"We wanted to have an activity in each of our catchment areas," said a spokesperson. "This is our 'First Annual.' It's something we'd like to do every year, to get the awareness out."

It wasn't exactly frozen yogurt weather on Saturday, when Menchie's Frozen Yogurt hosted a fundraiser for three-year-old Millie Arjoon.

Millie has a rare form of Muscular Dystrophy, Ulrich Congenital MD, that affects 1 in 1 million births. Her family is currently raising funds to make their Bradford home handicapped-accessible, and to equip it with the assistive devices that Millie will need as she grows. The goal is to raise $50,000.

Despite rain and temperatures that hovered around 12 degrees, there was a good turnout for the fundraiser, which donated 10% of all sales to "A Home for Millie," a fundraiser organized by resident Theresa Worthington, to assist the family.

DJ Reminize provided the music, as customers could enter the fundraising raffle, enjoy free balloons, face-painting, and performances by talented young dancers.

An oxtail soup so rich, it was like velvet. A carrot soup, made with purple carrots fresh from the Holland Marsh and just-pickled local garlic, that was bursting with flavour. A taco soup with so many layers, it was an adventure in a cup.

The Holland Marsh Soupfest has had many culinary highlights over the years, since it was first launched to celebrate local produce, and challenge chefs and caterers to transform fresh ingredients into soup to feed the body and soul.

This year's Soupfest will take place at Ansonville Park in the Holland Marsh, in the hamlet of Ansonville on Dufferin St. on Saturday, Oct. 3. From 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., drop by to visit vendors, a farmers' market, and sample soups created by culinary schools, restaurants and residents.

Tickets can be purchased in advance at www.holland-m.

St. Michael's Ukrainian Orthodox Church, located at 721 Simcoe Road, will be hosting its Perogy Dinner on Saturday, Sept. 19 from 4 to 7 p.m. Enjoy home-made potato and cheddar cheese perogies, sausage, salad, dessert, tea or coffee for only $10 for a small meal, $12 for regular, or $14 for a large dinner. Side dishes of sausage, Borscht and cabbage rolls are also available. Tickets at the door – a fundraiser for St. Michael's. All welcome.

St. Catherine of Alexandria Catholic Church (Byzantine Rite) at 56 Hearn St. in Bond Head, invites everyone to their famous Perogy and Ribs Dinner on Sunday, September 27, from 5 to 7 p.m. Tickets at the door – $15 for adults, $7 for children ages 7 to 12, free for kids 6 and under. All welcome!

Bradford United Church presents a Gala Murder Mystery Dinner & Show on Saturday, Oct. 3, at the church, 66 Barrie St. in Bradford. Titled, "Murder on a Cruise", the evening includes a gourmet dinner and dessert, silent auction, and wonderful Whodunit, to keep participants guessing. Tickets are $35 per person, available in advance by calling 905-775-2688. Note: tickets MUST be purchased by September 25. Wine and beer will be available or purchase.

marshsoupfest.ca. Adults pay $12, students and seniors pay $7 for seven samples (at the door, ticket prices go up to $15 and $10). Children and youth can enjoy five samples for $5. A family pass (two adults, two children) is $30 in advance, $35 at the door.

Interested in being a soup-maker, and vying for the trophies? Contact Tasha Veer at veer@kingston.com or 905-833-5321 ext. 3223.

Also coming up on Oct. 3: King Christian School, located at 19740 Bathurst St. in East Gwillimbury, is hosting its Harvest Festival. The former Holland Marsh District Christian School will be celebrating the harvest from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., with bouncy castles, games and activities, auctions, home-baked desserts, Dutch treats and a farmers' market. All are welcome to come out. A fundraiser for the school, which receives no government funding.

Bradford U17 Girls take Ontario Cup

BRADFORD SOCCER CLUB

The Bradford Eagles U17 Girls soccer team has made history – the first Bradford team to take the Ontario Cup title, playing at the Ontario Soccer Centre Stadium in Vaughan on the weekend.

Bradford faced North London in the finals, and won the cup, 3-0.

Bradford got things underway early on a great individual effort by Mackenzie Mix. Mix headed it over several players, to herself – before settling the ball at the edge of the 18-yard box and placing it into the corner, for her team's first goal.

The Eagles added another in the 24th minute of play, when Nadia Plawituk was sent in alone on the North London net, and buried the ball to score.

Giulia Geraci sealed it for Bradford in the 79th minute, when she sidestepped a North London defender, and finished her left-footed shot into the corner, ending the game 3-0.

The Bradford U17 Girls will be going on to the U18 Nationals, in Prince Edward Island.

"It's great to see that soccer in Bradford has grown to where teams are successful and can be champions of the biggest soccer tournament in Ontario," said Georgio Trikkas, Bradford Soccer's technical director. "The coaches and players deserve all the credit for their hard work all year in preparing themselves to be champions."

Trikkas noted that the Bradford Soccer Club has been able to send several players to professional soccer clubs, as well as to scholarships in the U.S. and Canada, and has "the best soccer program in Simcoe County... Bradford Soccer Club is providing a soccer pathway, where players are able to reach their highest goals." Like the U17 OYSL girls, taking the Ontario Cup and advancing to national competition.

The team is currently fundraising, to meet the costs of travel to PEI in October, a trip that will cost an estimated $30,000. To help sponsor Bradford's Ontario

Cup winners, please contact Tracy Mix at manageragles89@gmail.com or 416-833-2495.

Rattlers fall in OT in season opener

Bradford - The Bradford Rattlers played their first regular season game on Sunday, Sept. 13 – falling 5-4 in overtime to the visiting Orangeville Ice Crushers.

Rattlers opened the scoring with a first period goal from Slovakian forward Lukas Maros. Scoring in the second were Louis Chaix, Nicholas Lang and Gustav Larsson.

Bradley Hampton had his first start as a Rattler goalie, making 30 saves in the match. Rookie defenceman Syzmon Niedlich recorded three assists in his first-ever junior game, leading the club in points after Game 1.

For the opener, fans received a free ticket with a donation of non-perishable food, for the Club's Food Drive. Rattlers fans donated over 100 food items to the Salvation Army food drive.

Meanwhile, the Rattlers will be looking to rebound in Sunday's game (Sept. 20), against the expansion Grey County Grizzlies at the BWG Leisure Centre. Puck drop is at 7:30 p.m.

Splash Pads closing for the season

The splash pads located at the Lions Park and Alan Kuzmich Memorial Park in Bradford will be closing for the season on Sept. 20. The mechanical systems, including underground piping, will be drained and winterized – ready to reopen in June of 2016.

With this summer's heat waves, the splash pads played an important role in providing kids with a place to play and stay cool, says Mike O'Hare, Manager of Parks and Property, and an opportunity for families to gather to enjoy park amenities. For more information, contact mohare@townofbwg.com or call 905-775-5359 ext. 5201.

MIRIAM KING
Bradford Times

The third annual BSNA baseball tourney took place Sept. 12 at the Magani park ball diamonds, and this year, the first pitch had special meaning.

15-year-old Roman Klimek, accompanied by mom Nancy, was asked to throw the first pitch in memory of his dad, Bob Klimek, who passed away in March of this year.

"We played every year in the tournament," said Nancy. "He really loved playing - he loved soccer, he loved hockey, he loved baseball."

Despite their loss, Nancy and Roman decided to participate again this year. "It was important," she said. "We decided we should take part to move forward... It's an amazing event."

"He loved this game," said Roman.

They were presented with a memorial jersey by convenors Giuseppe Strazzeri, Yvette Kramer and Nicole Kim, and sponsor Tony Santilli, of Mr. Sub, as teams
